

JEWELS IN HER CROWN

Have you ever dreamed of being a princess? A princess with sparkly jewels and fancy dresses? A princess that lives in a palace and has servants?

You ARE a princess! Your heavenly Father is the King of Kings and you are his royal daughter. You have a sparkling tiara that shines with the love of your father and the gifts he has bestowed on you. Discover the jewels in your crown and how you can wear them with grace and pride.

MOTHER DAUGHTER STUDY, PRESENTATION, & ACTIVITY

“Jewels in Her Crown” was written for a Mother/Daughter banquet or event day. The study is designed for mothers and daughters to do it together as the leader guides them through it.

This could be adapted for use with women alone. Or create packets of all the materials as a “take home” for ladies who attend the Renewal so that they have a resource for use in their congregation.

CROWN ACTIVITY

The purpose of this is to give the girls a tangible and fun reminder of the 3 jewels that are in their crown as daughters of the King of Kings.

You will need:

- ☞ Crown: Have materials to create individual crowns – whether out of foam or construction paper (See templates on disk or item from Oriental Trading Company)
- ☞ Jewels: Have the materials so that the girls can have 3, main, large, jewels on the crown. (maybe even letters/initials so they can label each of these main jewels: beauty, strength, wisdom)
- ☞ Decorations: The Oriental Trading item comes with foam shapes. But you could also have glitter glue, stick on gems, etc. for decorating their crowns beyond the 3 main jewels.

Plan time, if possible, so that any glue or glitter on the crowns has time to “dry” before the end of the “day” when they will be taken home.
